Amherst, Will North win on track

The Amherst girls and the Williamsville North boys claimed titles Friday the Town of Amherst Track and Field Championship held in 40-degree temperatures and rain at Amherst.

Ashley Fields of Amherst won the 100, 200, 400 and was on the winning 4x400 relay. She broke the school record in the 400 with 57.3, lowering the previous mark of 58.7 held by Allison Rogers, curenly at Albany.

Elisa Frazier of Williamsville South won the 800, 1,500 and 3,000.
