

Fredonia competes at Falconer Invitational

May 7, 2011

OBSERVER Staff Report

FALCONER - Fredonia's Dylan Cassidy finished third in 400-meter hurdles in a time of :59.22 Friday at the Falconer Invitational, while taking fourth in the high jump at a height of 5-feet, 6-inches.

"This is the first time this season where our times are coming down where we want them to be," Fredonia coach Bob Ball said. "We're starting to see some results now and hopefully they keep getting better."

Also for Fredonia, Chris Mulkin took third in the triple jump at 40-7, and sixth in the long jump (18-11 1/2), Tyler Cassidy took fourth in the 800 in a time of 2:06.87 and fifth in the 1,600 (4:45.73). Meanwhile, Chaz Mancino took eighth in the 3,200 in a time of 10:39.53.

© Copyright 2011 The OBSERVER. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.