

October 23, 2011

Immaculata races to win in Akron

The Immaculata girls prevented a Section V sweep of the four varsity team titles at Saturday's 30th annual Clarence Fall Cross Country Classic at Akron Falls Park. The Bears won the small school girls race by a one-point margin over Greece Odyssey, 91-90. Hailey Gattuso of Mount St. Mary won the race in 21:05.5. Immaculata's top runner was Claire Attea, who was fifth.

Honeoye Falls-Lima won the boys and girls large school team titles while Aquinas was the small school boys winners.

Akron's Jeremy Rushok won the small school boys race in 16:52.8. Justin Bender of Clarence was the top local finisher in the large school boys race in 17:04.2. Livia Chase of Starpoint was third in the large school girls race.